Daniel Wood Associates and Wightman Design are working in partnership to deliver some exciting Equality and Diversity E-Learning packages.

Our E-Learning Packages

We offer three levels of Equality and Diversity E-Learning package as follows:

1. Equality and Diversity Awareness

This is a comprehensive, interactive E-Learning package covering a full range of Equality and Diversity issues. You can view this full package by applying for your 5 FREE user-licences.

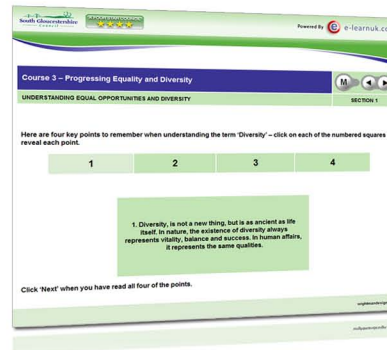

2. Branded Equality and Diversity Awareness

We can provide the Equality and Diversity Awareness package with appropriate branding to complement your own corporate branding i.e. using your own logos, corporate colours etc.

3. Bespoke Equality and Diversity Training

We can produce a bespoke E-Learning package for your organisation, covering your exact requirements and content. For example, you may wish to include your organisational policies and procedures, or include specific information within your own package.

Please contact us and we will be happy to provide you with an example of a a comprehensive bespoke package.

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF DISCRIMINATION — SECTION 4

BELIEF MODEL 1

Take a look at the following diagram of an iceberg:

Discrimination
Stereotype
Prejudice

Here is a picture of an iceberg. Note that the three terms "Prejudice", "Stereotype" and "Discrimination" have been labelled on to the iceberg. Click on each of the five boxes below to reveal the key points to remember in relation to this "Iceberg Model"

Click on each of the words in the boxes below to view the definition.

| 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |

This model outlines in simple terms how prejudice, stereotype and discrimination are inter-related. In the analogy of the iceberg, we can see that the term 'Prejudice' is at the base of the iceberg – it is below the water-line. Prejudices are not clearly visible, but none-the-less influence our behaviour - the way we act.

Click 'Next' when you have read all five points.
